THE SONG OF LITTLE HENRY

Should you ask us, whence this Saga?
Whence these legends and traditions,
With the gladness of Homecoming
With the spirit, noise of Pep Fests
With the odors of the Chem. Lab.,
With the morning rush to home rooms
With the fear and trepidation
On our journey to the Dean's room.
We should answer, we should tell you,
"From the buzzing, cluttered hallways,
From the quiet, sleepy classrooms,
Of our wigwam, Patrick Henry."
You, whose heads are fresh and simple,
Who believe that in all dealings
Every teacher's heart is human
In their struggles to enlighten,
Listen to this crude endeavor
To this Song of Little Henry.

HIGH SCHOOL, MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA

"I'll just have to clean that closet out one of these days!!!!"

To celebrate the school's Twentieth Anniversary, Mr. Porter, assisted by Diane Mayhew, at long last gets around to cleaning out his "Fibber" McGee-like closet with its twenty years' accumulation of souveniers.

"Watch out for your finger!!!"

Jeanne Kasmar is seeing that "Old Grads" Bailey and Engebretsen receive an ample portion of turkey at the Thanksgiving Banquet honoring Henry veterans.

The Sweetheart of Henry High!

Margie Stacy and Jean Westlund provide a Valentine background while Pat Vollum twirls her baton to the tune of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," between halves of the Henry-Central basketball game at the University of Minnesota Field House.

IN THE BRIGHT AND GLEAMING SUNSHINE
PLAY THE TRIBES OF LITTLE HENRY

The Patrick Henry War Memorial Dedication services took place at Porter Field early in October.

A bronze tablet inscribed with the names of the Henry boys who gave their lives in World War II is mounted on the base of the flag pole.

Mayor Humphrey and several dignitaries from the North Side were in attendance.

LITTLE HENRY'S COUNSELORS

Who are these that guide our footsteps?

With their learning guide our footsteps?

K. P. Hoerschgen, the great boaster,

He the marvelous story-teller;

"Nowsy," as he ambles onward

With his ever-present briefcase;

Davis chugging toward the wigwam

In his Buick, vintage, ancient.

These, among our loyal chieftains

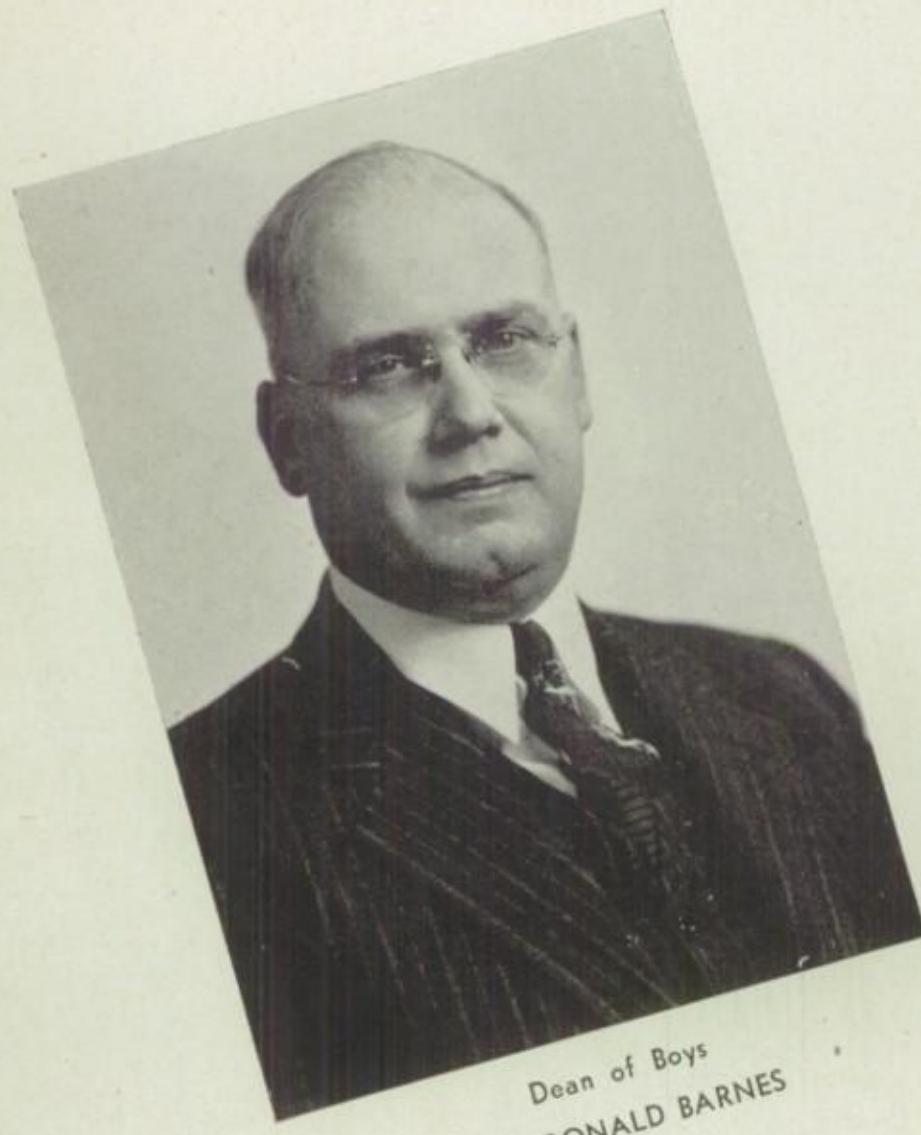

Aid the tribe of Little Henry.

MR. WILLIAM A. PORTER

Dean of Boys
MR. RONALD BARNES

Dean of Girls
MISS WINIFRED HULCRANTZ

"Three good friends had Little Henry,
Singled out from all the others."

The perennial English class . . . the struggle from the prepositional to the participial . . . "Hence, loathed Melancholy" . . . the memorizing of matchless stanzas from Bryant, Milton, Shakespeare . . . Mrs. White's scholarly language . . . thesos and more themes . . . Hoerschgen's terrifying tests . . . the instilling of appreciation of the most powerful and beautiful literature in the English tongue . . . preparation for a later life that will necessitate ease of expression in writing and speaking . . .

Emaly Anderson: English, Auditorium Adviser.
Marian Boquist: English, Latin, Latin Club Adviser.
Minnie Hanson: English, German, German Club Adviser.
Karl Hoerschgen: English, Public Speaking, N.F.L. Adviser.

Lorraine Shaffer: English, Class Play Adviser.
Jane Styer: English, Spanish, Spanish Club Adviser.
Ellen White: English, N.H.S. Sponsor.

Our ever-growing library is efficiently managed by Miss Cora Belisle and assistants, Marguerite Gripner and Lorene Linder. New books and magazines serve to lure more and more students to take advantage of the wealth of knowledge that resides there.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The study of other languages and the people that speak them . . . "Como estan ustedes, senores?" . . . movies portraying life in South America . . . "La Cucaracha" . . . a more intimate acquaintance with our South of the Border neighbors . . . Amo, amas, amat . . . Mrs. Boquist's sweet smile . . . Julius Caesar . . . an introduction to the people of a preceding civilization.

Carl Anderson: Civics, Debate, January Class Adviser.

William Dammann: U.S. History, Basketball.

Maurice Hove: World History, Commercial Law, Student Council Adviser, Hockey, Track.

Pearl Kienholz: Civics, June Class Adviser.

Walter Larson: U.S. History, N.H.S. Sponsor.

Donald Moldenhauer: Band.

Adolph Nervig: Choir.

Emil Newstrand: History, Patriot Adviser.

"Next week an 'A' will be 6,000 points!" —a familiar phrase from any of "Newsy's" history classes . . . those notebooks Mr. Larson is constantly demanding . . . the peculiar and rather sanguine array of "third projects" gracing the room of Mr. Dammann . . . Carl Anderson's loud socks . . . Adam Smith and his maxims of taxation . . . those famous "jury trials" in Andy's room . . . the man to man discussions on the question, "What's wrong with the schools?" enjoyed by Miss Kienholz' classes . . .

SOCIAL SCIENCE MUSIC

Carl Anderson, local 238, offers vehement justification for the threatened teachers' strike.

From the screeching and discord of the beginners' band to the smooth, polished champions embodied in the senior band . . . parading in an atmosphere definitely not conducive to musicianship during the Winter Carnival . . . the clash, bang, clang, of batons dropped on concrete floors . . . the finished performances exhibiting the band in all its glory of color, pom-poms, and flags . . . voices raised in harmonious chorus . . . the Christmas concert . . . the tremulous pipings of the new members . . . the recording of beloved carols . . .

Shorthand; just a series of scratchings and curlicues to the uninitiated . . . the means to a future stenographic or secretarial career to those who possess the ability to decipher it . . . the clattering rumble that issues continually from the typing classes . . . timings . . . Miss Packer's little bell . . . the diligence and determination stamped on the faces of those whose aim is the acquisition of accuracy and adroitness . . .

Ann Amon: Physical Education, First Aid.
Frank Cleve: Physical Education, Football, Golf.
Orville Moe: Shorthand, Typing.
Clarence Ohland: Bookkeeping, Occupational Relations, Lockers.

Olive Packer: Shorthand, Typing.
Floyd Valley: Physical Education, Swimming, Apparatus.
Phyllis Ziebarth: Physical Education.

COMMERCIAL GYM

Jean Groves and Delores Christensen try to elude the ink while finishing up a "rush" order for one of our harried teachers.

Physical fitness tests—harbingers of innumerable aches, pains, and strains . . . the intense excitement prevalent during the volleyball game between squads one and two . . . endurance tests—"Six times around the gym is a D!" . . . the exuberant joy that greets spring baseball when it's warm enough to go outdoors . . . burpees, chin-ups, push-ups . . . instruction in the coordination of mind with body . . .

Katherine Hynes: Art, Fashion Drawing, Sketch, Woodcarving, N.H.S. Sponsor.

Ardella Maxfield: Clothing, N.H.S. Sponsor.

Deborah Roberts: Foods, Home Management.

Joe Mullery: Woodwork, Baseball, Machine Shop.

Paul Smith: Mechanical Drawing, Stage Crew.

Vern Wobig: Mechanical Drawing, Metals, Equipment Mgr.

The singular and unexpected results sometimes produced in the cooking classes . . . cooking cards and recipes . . . pleasant reminders from Miss Roberts to the effect that "You must know your recipe for white sauce, girls!" . . . impatient waiting for a turn at a sewing machine . . . flat-fall seams . . . home projects . . . Mrs. Maxfield's lovely hand-sewn clothes . . . water colors and tempera . . . the beautifully carved boxes and plates adorning the art room that are looked upon so enviously by the novices . . . portraits and posters . . . the closing of each period with the command to "Be sure the scissors are all back!" . . .

HOME ECONOMICS

ART AND SHOP

Marie Sheppard, future fashion designer for Schiaparelli, adds the finishing touches to one of her creations.

The eerie, undulating sound of buzz saws . . . the woody smell and dusty atmosphere . . . printing jobs and cases . . . T-squares . . . floor plans and tiny model houses . . . an introduction to what can be interesting and profitable vocations, or simply useful knowledge . . .

"Anything can happen," the unofficial motto of the chemistry classes . . . Miss Harlow's disproved statements that "This is a perfectly safe experiment." . . . mystic mixtures, many times gratifyingly odoriferous . . . dynamic equilibrium . . . Avogadro's hypothesis and the electronic theory . . . Mr. Anderson's struggles to cope with his complex contrivances . . . Archimede's principle . . . "If an automobile is speeding along at 70 miles an hour and suddenly bumps into a tree—" . . . atomic and nuclear disintegration . . . Plant and animal life . . . Photosynthesis . . . vertebrates and invertebrates . . . The anticipation preceding those weekly movies . . .

Arthur Anderson: Physics, Orator Adviser.

Glen Davis: Biology.

Kathleen Harlow: Chemistry, School Auditor.

Wilbur Lundell: Geometry, Wrestling.

Minnie Koeshel: Biology.

Ruth Opsahl: Geometry, Advanced Algebra,

Solid Geometry, Trigonometry.

SCIENCE

MATH

Kuss and KoKesh concoct one of the evil odors that manage to find their way from the Chem Lab to all corners of the building.

Compasses and protractors . . . "The square of the hypotenuse of a right triangle" . . . logarithms and quadratic equations . . . Miss Opsahl's simple (?) explanation of radian measure . . . those "short" trig assignments . . . the opening of new doors unto a panorama of nascent ideas that will create for us a richer and more prosperous world.

LITTLE HENRY'S BROTHERS

Down the paths of learning wander
Braves and maidens, fresh and eager,
"Wahoo" with his cat-like swagger,
"Bates," the idle mischiefmaker.
Not like other maidens, Mona
Sang of "Euch" and love undying;
Dear, too, unto Little Henry
Was the very strong man, Roberts.
Who shall say what thoughts and visions,
Fill the brains of Dick and Harry?
Handsomest of all the maidens
Was the fair one, Queen Patricia.
These and many others like them
Form the tribe of Little Henry.

That introducer of new innovations, Mrs. Maloney, transforms demure Shirley Peterson into an old witch, thereby demonstrating the wonders of make-up during a study of the drama.

Lending invaluable service in helping Miss Belisle keep the library in good order are Betty Jobes, Clarabelle Freeman, Margaret Bachman, Marlene Ringland, Arden Halk, and Barbara Pruyn.

One of those mysterious devices that reveal the laws of density is examined by some of the more inquisitive physics students.

LITTLE HENRY'S POW-WOOS

Full of zeal was Little Henry
Full of love for fun and frolic,
Going forth to tribal meetings
Gath'ring with his Hi-Y Brothers.
For the Maiden, Henrietta,
There were Blue Tri and Horizon.
Many moons the Council gathered,
Tried and judged their fellow warriors.
Splendid with their paint and plumage,
Beautiful with flags and pom-poms,
Drilled and polished very smoothly,
Came the Band of Little Henry.

ORATOR—"We've got to have more pictures!" "Where are the dummy sheets?" "The deadline is March 15!"

These frenzied words can be heard issuing forth from Room 311 any sixth hour. Kaye Leavitt, editor, and A. P. Anderson, Orator adviser, spend the year trying to gather the staff together in order to get the Orator finished before the deadline.

PATRIOT—For an accurate and engaging account of the current personalities, activities, fads and opinions that make up Henry High, see the "Patriot."

Staff members take pride in the fact that the Patriot has won All-American honors from the National Scholastic Press Association for the past four years. The whole staff, under the able direction of "Nowsy" and editors Jean Hanson, Mike Stolee, and "Marc" Anderson, makes every effort to keep the "Patriot's" standard up to that which it has maintained in the past.

HI-HAVEN—Any Friday night Henry students may be found enjoying the benefits of the rumpus room, lounge, and the dance at the Y.W.C.A. The Hi-Haven Committee makes the arrangements for the program, refreshments, and checking when Henry is host.

PAT-POLAR—The Pat-Polar Committee takes charge of the dances which are held semi-monthly and are sponsored by the Northside Y.M.C.A. They enable students from Henry, North, and Robbinsdale to get acquainted and have a good time.

STAGE CREW—Entirely too little credit is given to these hard-working boys behind the curtain. They're always right there to do their part in making every auditorium program a success.

MOVIE CREW—The "unsung heroes" of the Patriot Club are the boys on the Movie Crew. They are on call at all times to run off educational movies in the various classrooms.

G.A.C.—The purpose of the Girls' Activity Committee is to consider problems that might affect the welfare of all the girls in the school.

HORIZON CLUB—This group of Senior Campfire girls gathers principally for a good time. Parties and a weekend at Camp high-lighted the Club's activities during the year.

BLUE TRI—"Spotlight on You" was the theme for the Blue Tri this year. Each meeting was co-ordinated and featured various phases of attaining feminine charm. Henry collaborated with the North Blue Tri for a St. Patrick's Day Party.

SILVER TRI—This year Silver Tri has been taking a trip to South America through their meetings. Each meeting makes a stop at a different point of interest along the way. One of the main projects of Silver Tri this year was to furnish two Thanksgiving baskets to needy families.

HI-Y CLUBS—The North Side Hi-Y sponsors the various Hi-Y Clubs and their activities at Henry. Every month a joint meeting of the Henry clubs is held down at the North Side Branch. The main objectives of Hi-Y clubs are outlined in the motto of the organization which is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Some of the projects that are tackled by the Henry Hi-Y are buying and selling second hand books in the Hi-Y book room and selling Christmas Trees in cooperation with the Y's men's clubs.

HI-Y CLUBS—The Hi-Y clubs are among the most active at Henry. Many of the important social events of the school year are provided by Y club parties. Each Hi-Y has its own special project, such as filling Thanksgiving baskets or collecting clothing for relief. The Revere Hi-Y collected Christmas gifts for Sheltering Arms polio patients. The Les Gourmants Hi-Y edits a news sheet, called "Y's Word," which gives an account of the activities of each Hi-Y.

Each club meeting provides the boys with an opportunity for experience in leadership, self expression, and public devotions.

LITTLE HENRY'S CONQUESTS

Forth upon the fields of Conquest,
Armed with all their warlike weapons,
Filled with fight and inspiration
Came the braves of Little Henry.

Forth upon the fields of battle,
Led by Chieftains, Cleve and Dammann
With their heroes, Sparks, Adamski,
Gus, and Claude the Mighty Midget.

These, and many, many others
Were the braves who fought for Henry
In all combats fought with valor
That the tribe might be Victorious.

FOOTBALL

Co-captain John Sparks.

The unconquerable Henry spirit gained momentum throughout the season to reach its climax in the final game with West. Early in the season Henry held the defending champions, Roosevelt, to a 13 to 13 tie. The Henryites presented the school with a Homecoming victory by tipping Southwest 7 to 6; continuing their winning ways, the Patriots upset Marshall in a rough game by a score of 6 to 0.

In the final contest, an inspired Henry eleven met West, the city champions, in the most spectacular game of the year! The never-say-die Pats fought a see-saw battle and tied the Cowboys four times, only to lose in the final minutes; thus closing the most highly spirited season in the history of Patrick Henry Football!

BASKETBALL

Three thrilling contests marked the 46-47 season in the cage circuit for the Henry basketeers. Not only did the cagers effect a win over a surprisingly strong West squad, but they came within seconds of beating the Central five in an overtime. This same Central five went on to overthrow Edison, the leading contender for the city championship. Another Henry thriller was that against Washburn at the field house. In this game the Henry five tied the score many times only to lose by two points in the closing minutes.

Hockey is a revived sport at Henry steadily growing in popularity with the students. The undaunted spirit was the outstanding feature of the team. This factor helped in our contest with North especially. The Henry six came from behind to win a 5 to 3 victory against a hard fighting Polar squad.

The Co-captains this year were Norm Skelly and Jim Lemieux. Skelly distinguished himself by being chosen for the All-city team.

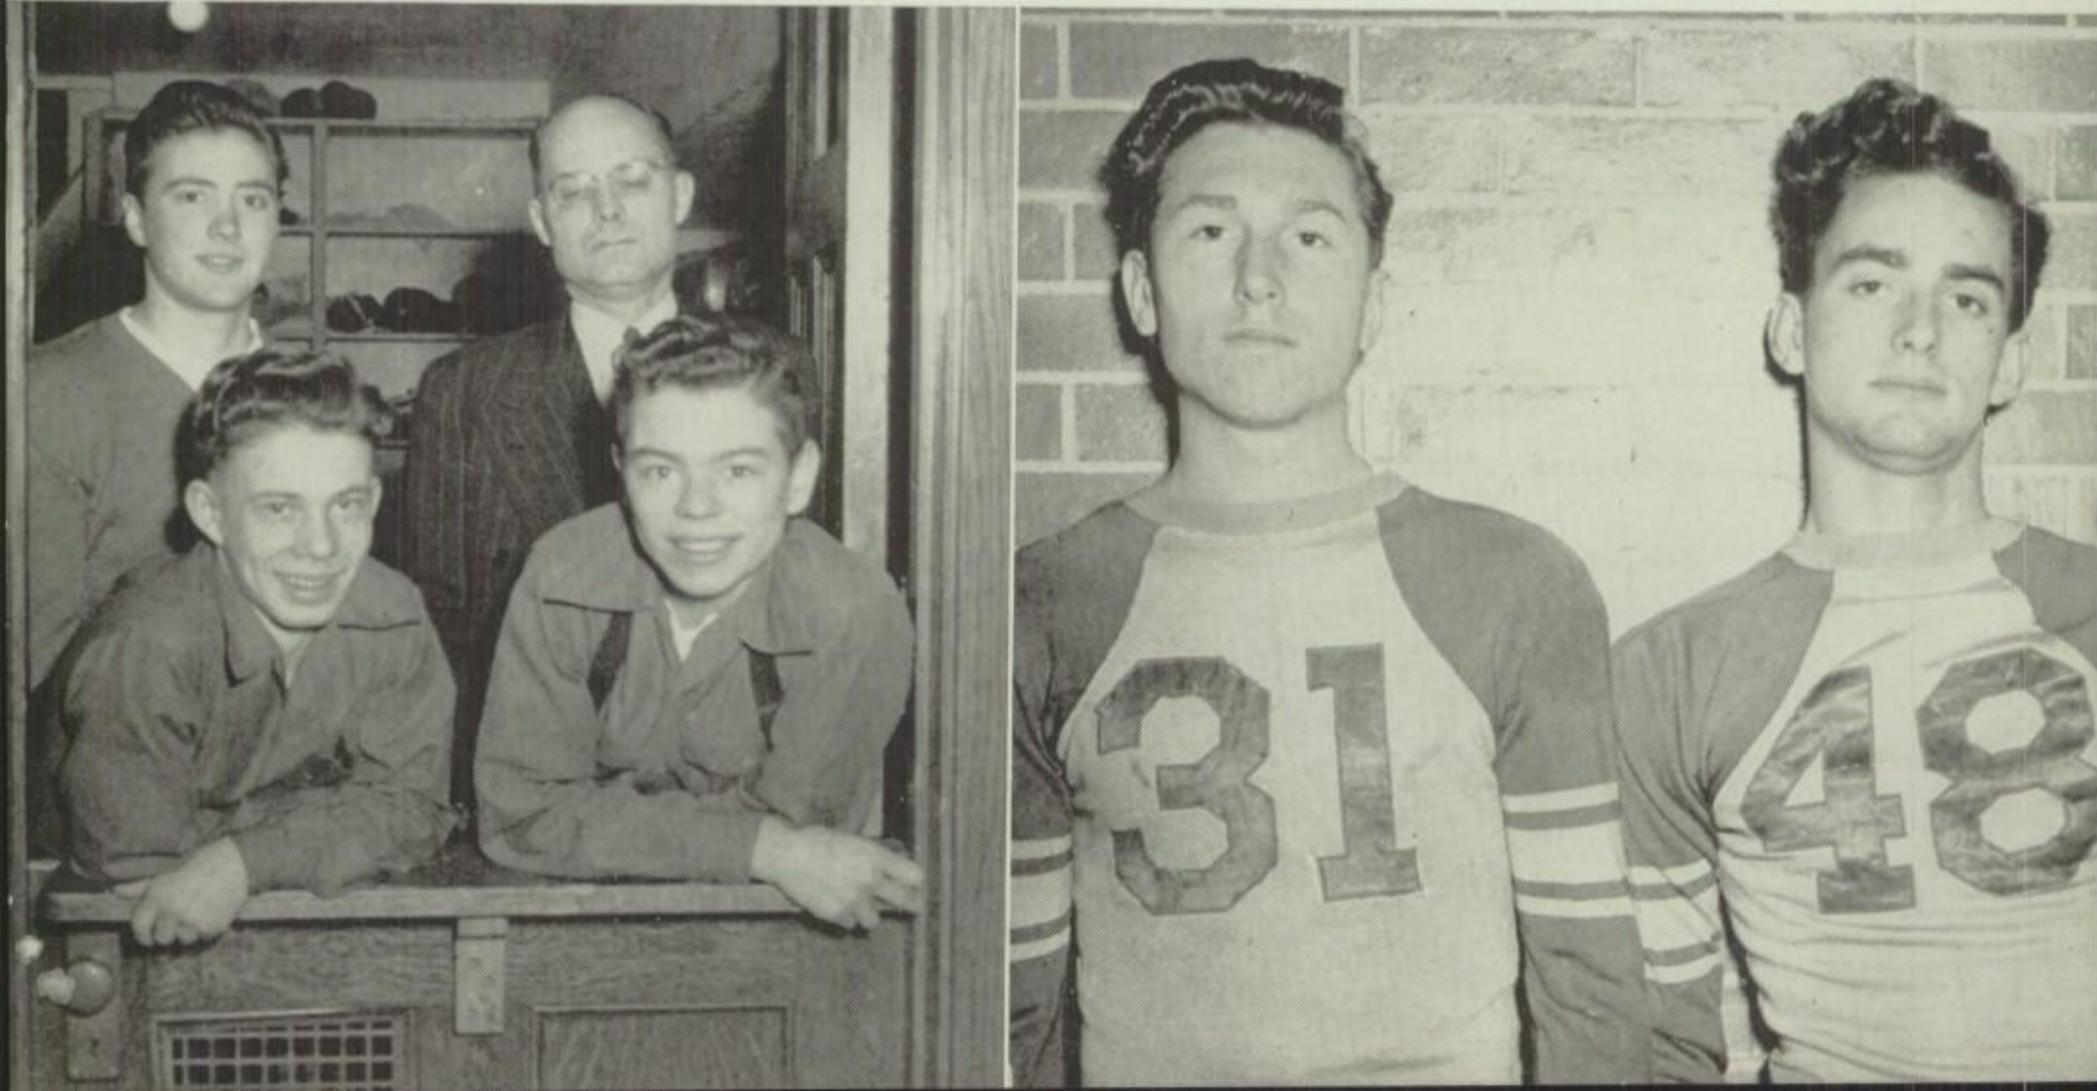

Under the supervision of Maurice Hove, the team has won three and tied one out of seven games for a third place tie with North in the city rating.

After its second year of city competition the Henry mermen showed the spark of a great team to come. Composed almost entirely of under-classmen, Coach Valley's Tankmen defeated a strong Central team, 42 to 30, and then South, its last opponent, 41 to 34, for two wins out of seven tries.

Led by Jim Jordal, speedy backstroker, and Dale Nortstrom, crawler, the team came through for an eighth place seat in the city circle.

The main cog of next year's team will be Jim Jordal. Jim placed second in the city meet and finished sixth in the state. A pretty fine record for a junior. The relay team was one of Henry's biggest point getters and included Henry's best swimmers. It was made up of Kuss, Jordal, Norstrom, and Yahn.

Row 2: Bray, Huttleston, Hedeen, Sparks, Captain Baker, Brennan.

Row 1: Juneski, Jordal, G. Bittner, B. Bray, Gearou.

APPARATUS

Twenty-five boys of the Henry Apparatus class participated in the State and North West meet at Cook Hall. The outstanding performers for Henry were Allen Hietale and Wally Hedeen, the latter being an all-around metal winner. In the Upper Midwest meet class "D" took 4th place, while in the State meet they took a 5th. In the meantime the class "C" took 7th in both meets.

Many boys will be back next year to build up a powerful team for Floyd Valley.

WRESTLING

Without regard to the city title, the Henry matmen did better than they expected this season. Led by Captain Don Baker, the squad furnished trouble for all the city teams. Besides Baker, other boys who showed ability were John Sparks and Dwight Bray, who took first in the city and third in the state meet.

Coach Bill Lundell's grapplers took a second from Roosevelt in the city meet, missing the crown by a mere 6 points.

Allen Hietale proved to be one of the best parallel barsmen by tying for first place in the class "D" event of the Upper Midwest Gymnastic meet.

Row 1: Goslin, Dury, H. Skelly, Szczeck, Oden, Greenwood, Minor, Bates.

BASEBALL

Although little is known of the team's possibilities, Coach Joe Mullery's baseball nine gave a good account of themselves in pre-season practice. The standouts among the forty to fifty prospects who tried out for the team were Howie Skelly at first; Kokie Miller at second; John Minor at third; and Wayne Szczeck at shortstop. Norm Skelly, one of the few first stringers from last year, will take care of the left field spot. With Jerry Oden behind the plate and Rod Adamski, Dale Hanson, Harlow Palm, and Tom Drury to take care of the pitching, the team, with a few new outfielders, should go places in the Northern Division.

It's a hard hit ball by Leo.

Row 1: Robertus, Levens, Johnson, Cyrotksy, Early, Stumm, Hofstad, Barrett, G. Nelson.

TRACK

Hindered greatly by the wet spring weather the track team got off to a slow start and failed to compete in the Metropolitan track meet. The few returning veterans from last year's team include Hofstad and Olander (field events), Early and Johnson (milers), Larson (dashes), and Smith (880 yard run). Under returned coach, Maurice Hove, the track team won their first event from Vocational, 73 to 40, and their second meet with West, 69 to 41.

Cheered the victors at Homecoming,
Went campaigning for his favorite
In the Senior Class elections.

You shall see how Little Henry,
Clad in all his richest raiment,
Danced at A-B Senior Parties,
Hands unskillful, feet unwilling.
How he ventured out on Prom night,
Courting Little Henrietta.

You shall hear how Little Henry
Forsaking all his classroom labors
Played and frolicked in the Wigwam,
Ever frolicked in the Wigwam.

At the Thanksgiving auditorium given by Blue Tri and Hi-Y, Janice Larson sang "Bless This House." A psalm read by Jack Moran and a poem by Virginia Samuel helped to round out the program.

An original rendition of "K-K-K-Katie" was presented by Margie Johnson, Shirley Russell, Marilyn Green, Marilyn Olson, Arden Halk, and Joan Nordstrom during the intermission of Henry's night at Hi-Haven.

That amiable magician, Dick Swandby, alias "The Great Swamby," treats the crowd at Hi-Haven to a portion of his repertoire.

SENIOR "BUSTLE HUSTLE"

The responsibility for the good time had by all at the January A-B Senior party rested on the able shoulders of L. O'Dell, L. Lindquist, A. Burger, M. Green, S. Peterson, J. Kuss, R. Hallenberg, R. Scharber, and L. Esterly.

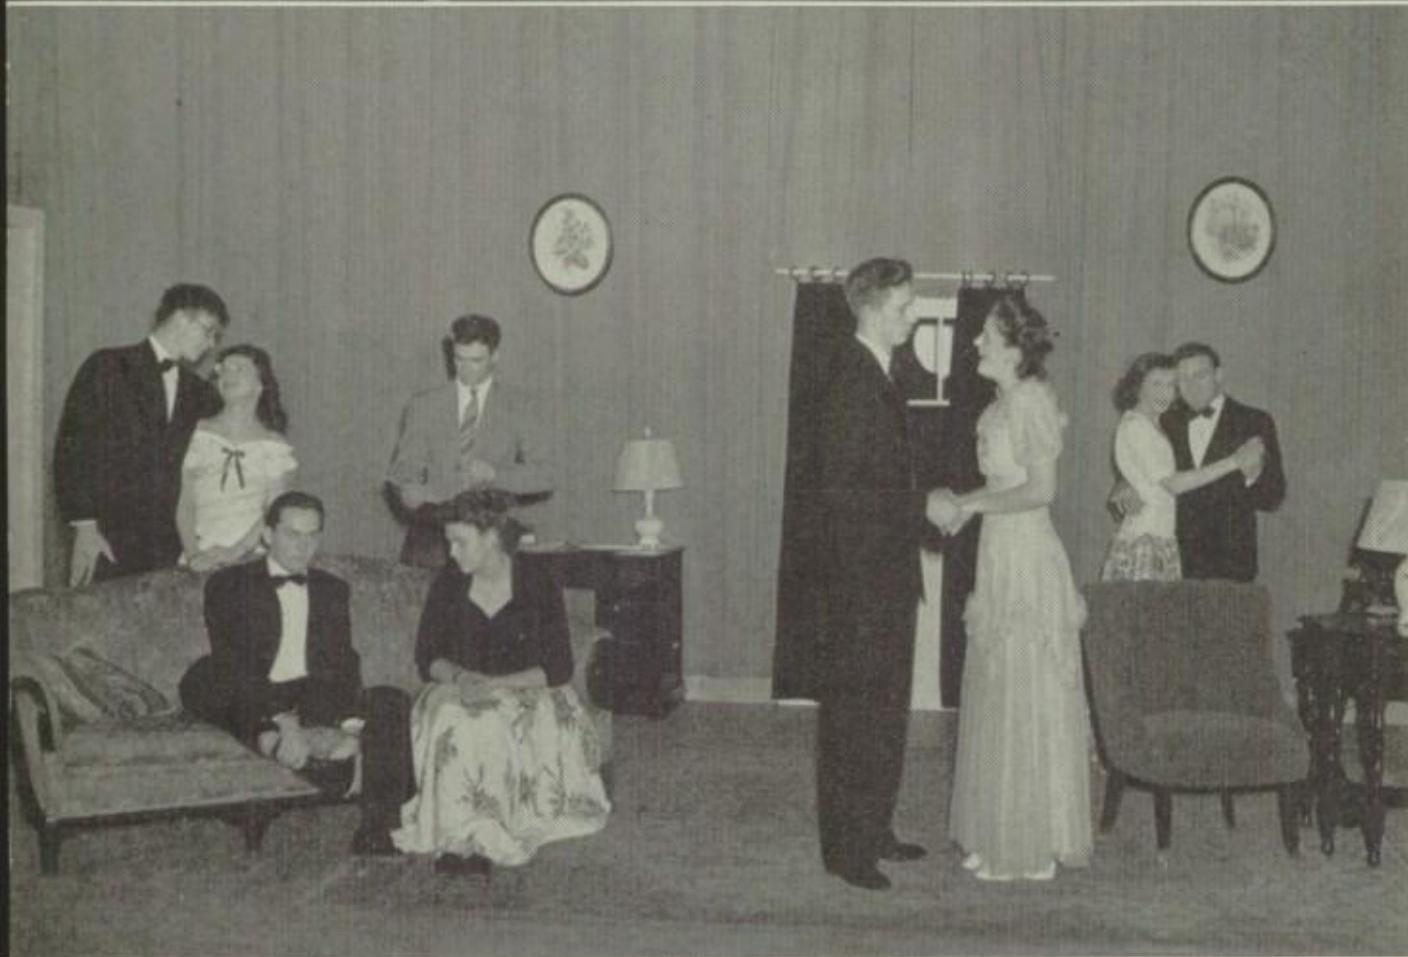

Atmosphere was added to the A-B Senior party by Barrett, Larson, Waldon, and Nordstrom singing their own rendition of "Daisy."

Cliff Popp and Mona Morrison wash away the remnants of last year's A-B Senior party to make way for this year's party whose theme was the "Bustle Hustle."

SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

In "Crooks for a Month," the January Class Play, Jean Hansen served coffee and doughnuts to hungry receivers Anderson, Stern and Fotia.

A hilarious moment occurred during the January Play as Fotia and Stern forced Anderson to eat his prize winning "Cream of the Orient" soap.

The grand finale of the January Class Play, "Crooks for a Month" featured Jim Anderson, Lyla Nelson, John Thorvilson, Janice Larsen, Wencil Johnston, Bill Stern, Jean Hansen, Joan Clemens, and Frank Fotia.

LITTLE HENRY'S FAREWELL

Forth into the wigwam went he,
Bade farewell to all his classmates,
Bade farewell to all his counsellors.
Then he spoke to all who helped him
Make a record of the school year,
Giving thanks for all assistance.

"To the Bureau of Engraving,
Also to Mrs. Robertson,
To Mr. Franz and Mr. Segal,
To the Harrison-Smith Printers
And to King Features Syndicate,
For the use of Little Henry,
I give my appreciation."

"Now I'm going, O my comrades,
To a long deserved vacation."

Thus departed Little Henry,
With the memory of the school year,
From the wigwam, Patrick Henry.
